Upcharges may change without notice. Other species available upon request. Note that color and texture variation is normal for all woods and is not considered to be a defect. Some species, such as Brazilian Cherry, may have natural, undesirable tendencies and may not have the same guarantee as our Red Oak parts. We will use all available methods to properly glue and fabricate all species, but check with your salesperson or customer service representative to review the limitations of off-species woods. SET-UP FEES may be added on orders under 100’; see page 2 for details or call Customer Service.
